"A FAMILY AFFAIR"

Two-reel Century Comedy

CHARLIE takes his sweetheart Louise out for a spin in his undersized flivver, and before he knows it, his outing becomes a family affair. Louise invites father. Father invites mother. Mother invites grand-dad and grand-ma, and they in turn invite the children. The only one not invited is Teddy, the brilliant Dane, but he doesn't wait for an invite; he just naturally follows.

In their effort to dodge the family, Charlie and Louise take refuge on a yacht, but to their surprise pop and mom and the other pests are on board—it being the property of a friend of the family.

Later Charlie comes upon a dangerous wrestler, and to save his own life he finally conquers the human steam roller. He wins Louise, and they live scrappily ever after.
